

LOUADA FARMS SALE

OCTOBER 27, 1958

Louada Aristocrat, Lot 2, and Louada Bomber, Lot 1.

All Louada sale photographs are unretouched.

The desire to own top Shorthorns and the most potent bloodlines is universal. Interest in the Louada program does not stop at national boundaries or continents.

The Louada herd was assembled by selecting the finest females available, regardless of distance. Through the years, cows considered excellent at the time of purchase, but not producing to our standards, have been ruthlessly culled, regardless of what they may have cost. The blood of certain outstanding foundation females has been accentuated through retaining daughters. In some cases, as many as four daughters, and now several granddaughters, of certain cows are in the herd. Louada never hesitates to continue its purchase of outstanding females.

We emphasize the strength of the female herd. No matter how good the senior stock bulls, if the female side is weak, little can be accomplished.

Two great stock bulls appear most prominently in Louada pedigrees today. Both of these bulls were highly sought after by breeders the world over. Calrossie Armada, purchased for $27,000 at the 1952 Perth sale is recognized everywhere to be one of the great sires of this era. Bapton Constructor, purchased privately in 1956 for the world's record price of 15,000 gns. has been widely acclaimed as an individual. The few calves by him already to appear on the scene in Scotland, and last fall at Louada, provided just a sample of what was to come. Sixty calves by him have already arrived at Louada, fifteen of which will be old enough to sell as individual lots in this sale. We are confident of your enthusiastic approval.

The acid test of any program is the way blood breeds into the second and succeeding generations. The list of such Louada accomplishments is already long. Louada Ranger, for example, a grandson of Calrossie Armada, and sired by Louada Sensation, now owned by W. K. Barry & Sons, Illinois, was recently sold to head one of the best herds in New Zealand. He is one of the first Shorthorn bulls to be exported to that area from North America in many years.

The added potency into the second generation of Louada blood can be seen quickly right here in the Louada herd. Eight of the best Bapton Constructor bulls in this sale are out of Louada bred daughters and granddaughters of Calrossie Armada. In addition to the sale females by Calrossie Armada, ten of the best are by his sons, Louada Forager, Louada Factor, Louada Sensation, and Louada Glorious, all used here before being sold to head other excellent herds.

Louada would like to express thanks not only to those who have purchased seed stock here, but to the countless breeders from Canada, United States, Scotland, the Argentine, New Zealand, South Africa, and Australia, who have visited us, have been highly complimentary in regard to the cattle, and have spread the word about what we are accomplishing to their friends and neighbors.

NEW ZEALAND: Louada Ranger, reserve junior champion, 1957 International. Sold to head the herd of E. B. Booth, Masterton, New Zealand. Sire, Louada Sensation by Calrossie Armada.

Wherever you live ... Louada cattle in your pedigrees generate buyer confidence.

Scene at the main lodge the day before the Louada sale.

These cows and calves were sold in the 1956 Louada sale. All Louada sale cattle and the cow herd are exhibited outdoors.

Every decision at Louada is made with the interests of the breed in mind. The many cattlemen who place the future of their herds in the hands of a Louada bull are entitled to the best efforts we can make. We are particularly proud of the 1958 offering because it is the first draft of sons and daughters of Bapton Constructor. We believe they show the results of a constructive program here — that they are bred to breed on and help you.

You are no doubt busy, like everyone else, but there are certain pleasures you owe to yourself. Principal of these is the fellowship of the many fine people throughout the world who are your partners in the Shorthorn business. Join them this year at Louada, and come back as often as you can.

Plan to arrive on Sunday for a leisurely inspection of the herd. During the evening we will hold an open house at the lodge where a buffet supper will be served.

We will be glad to meet you in Toronto. We urge you NOT to make your connections so close that you arrive in Toronto Monday morning.

In The 1957 Louada Sale

Burnton Gordon, by Bapton Constructor sold at $13,000 to Mrs. T. C. Stuart, Tutira Farms, Arundel, Quebec. Mrs. Stuart is second from right in the picture above. Another of Bapton Constructor's first sons, Louada Balmoral, six months of age, sold for $6,000 to Leonard Buck, Thomasville, Georgia.

Record Price For Scotland

Bapton sold Bapton Constructor to us retaining the privilege of mating a number of their best cows to him before shipment. This Bapton Constructor daughter, calved at Bapton, sold in the 1957 Bapton-Glamis sale. At nine months of age, she brought a new world's record price for a Shorthorn female in Scotland, selling at $10,000 to A. R. Cross, Calgary, Alberta.

At the age of three, Bapton Constructor has already earned world wide recognition as a sire. The five sons and daughters sold at auction by him to date have averaged $7,880.

Occasional flashes are not what interests Louada when it comes to using a stock bull. With sixty calves by Bapton Constructor on the ground at Louada, including the fifteen selling in this sale, there can be no question of his consistence as a sire.

CONGRATULATIONS . . .

"SANDY" CROSS

It is only natural that Louada has followed the career of Bapton Cairnbrogie with great interest. He is the full brother of Bapton Constructor, a year younger. We were, of course, delighted to see this bull bring the top price at Perth in 1957 (7,000 gns.) and more than happy to have him go into the great herd of A. R. "Sandy" Cross, Calgary, Alberta.

In July the greatest Shorthorn show ever held in Western Canada, possibly the greatest in Canadian Shorthorn history, was held at Calgary. 275 head from 38 Canadian and United States breeders participated. The supreme champion was Bapton Cairnbrogie.

A son of Bapton Cairnbrogie sells at Lot 11.

This catalog would not be complete without a salute to the breeder of Bapton Constructor, Cecil Moores; Bapton manager, Gordon Blackstock; and the sire of Bapton Constructor, Calrossie Constellation. This tremendous bull was retired from the show ring last year after winning every major championship, and he continues to amass a great record as a sire. His full brother Calrossie Triumphant was champion at the English Royal and Royal Highland this year. Another full brother, Calrossie White Emblem, is making a great record in the Richardson Stock Farm Herd, Winnipeg, Manitoba.

Louada Fearless, unretouched snapshot. One of the first sons of Calrossie Armada. Purchased by The Hickories, Pardeeville, Wisconsin, at the 1954 International. His sons have consistently sold over the $1,000 mark. Four full sisters of Louada Fearless are in the Louada herd.

It doesn't take long to pay for a Louada bred bull through the premium prices his blood will command. The bull above was purchased for $3,500. His owners realized his original purchase price with three bulls from the first calf crop.

You PAY for a good bull whether you get him or not. A poor bull taxes every calf he sires. Many alert breeders who will buy sons of Bapton Constructor in this sale will have them paid for by the time the first calf arrives — through the added value of heifers sold carrying their services. Be the first in your area to offer the blood of Bapton Constructor.

Just a sample of the tremendous inventory of Louada Fearless daughters in The Hickories herd. Picture from the cover of The Shorthorn world. The heifer in the foreground was the grand champion female over all breeds at the 1958 Wisconsin Mid-Winter Futurity.

In the 1955 Louada sale, True Buckmaster, Portland, Indiana, purchased Louada Commander for $5,000 a son of Calrossie Armada out of Rothes Carlotta. In his sale, to be held Monday, October 6, he is selling thirteen sons, fourteen daughters, and 25 nursing calves by this bull. They are an outstanding group, worthy of the attention of good breeders everywhere.

In the 1956 Louada sale, he purchased Gibbonsdale Waterloo Bertha by Louada Marshal for $1,550. She had an excellent calf at foot by Louada Glorious, Louada Dandy, that is selling in his sale, as well as twin bull calves dropped in 1957 to the service of Bapton Constructor — a grand pair — also selling.

In the 1957 Louada sale, he purchased Louada Orange Trim by Calrossie Armada for $1,550. The following month there was another great Bapton Constructor bull calf at the Buckmaster farm, also selling in the coming Buckmaster sale.

These five young bulls all result from True Buckmaster's purchases in the Louada sale. From left to right, Louada Dandy, the calf at foot by Louada Glorious with Gibbonsdale Waterloo Bertha; Trinity Commander 13th by Louada Commander; Trinity Constructor by Bapton Constructor and out of Gibbonsdale Waterloo Bertha; Trinity Commander 5th by Louada Commander; and Trinity Constructor 2nd, the other twin Bapton Constructor bull out of Gibbonsdale Waterloo Bertha.

Among the very best calves by Bapton Constructor are those out of daughters and granddaughters of Calrossie Armada. This is an important consideration not only to Louada, but to the herds using a son or a grandson of Calrossie Armada.

The second step is always the hardest — finding the right bull to nick with the daughters of a good sire. By using a Bapton Constructor son on females of Calrossie Armada breeding, you will be locking in progress along the lines already proven at Louada. Select one that's here now — or "luck" one in dam.

Sire of Stock Bulls!

Louada Bomber      Louada Paragon      Louada Aristocrat      Louada Regalia      Louada Royalist

Note the power of Bapton Constructor — his head and burly neck, smooth shoulder, level underline, strong sturdy legs. Here is a massive bull of proper conformation. He is deep, wide and smooth, with a bulging round down to his hocks.

Compare closely with these pictures of the first calves dropped at Louada. These photographs were taken in July, when the calves were about six or seven months old. It is obvious this great bull is transmitting his pattern to every calf. We are confident that those who buy his sons will produce calves of this great pattern on their farms.

Roan, P. F. Jones
Rigfoot Clipper —281122—
Roan, C. S. Carruthers

Louada Clipper D 11th — Full sister of Louada Foreman, used successfully by Ross Flett of Oakwood, Ontario. Bred to Remitall Galahad.

Bapton Constructor

Notice the similarity in conformation between Bapton Constructor and his son Louada Regalia, pictured at right. Bapton Constructor is prepotent in transmitting his superlative beef characteristics — great rib and heart; powerful, wide, deep loin; long wide quarters with bulging rounds and deep twists.

For carcass quality breed the most meat in the highest priced areas. The seven month old calf by Bapton Constructor, below, has them. Isn't this the goal we are all seeking?

Louada Regalia

Certainly one of the vital topics of the day, among all progressive breeders of registered cattle, is the importance of carcass quality and red meat.

At the Shorthorn conference one leading breeder ably summed it this way, "We must have size, without getting rough horsey cattle. Make your cattle the kind that will produce the most high priced cuts, the least amount of waste, at the earliest age, with the least production cost."

If the breed is to lead in this important field, leadership must be taken by the top herds — herds like Louada and those using Louada bulls. Think of the influence of one great sire like Bapton Constructor, through his sons, grandsons, and great-grandsons!

The accepted standards for conformation and meat yield are well known — the things we can see — depth, width, smoothness, freedom from waste. Research has blasted the theory that small fine boned cattle yield the best carcass. Muscling — the red meat, not blubber, is associated with cattle of strong flat bone. Good heads are an indication of masculinity and muscle.

In Bapton Constructor, we approach these goals with a bull tremendous in conformation, a bull of size and ruggedness, consistently siring calves that make rapid red-meat gains.

First prize group of three bulls, 1954 International. All sired by Calrossie Armada. Notice their masculine heads and width—important characteristics in red meat, muscled, cattle.

The leaders of the Future are breeding for red meat today !

Louada Rothes Anne — Due to calve in March to Louada Ranger. Her dam is a full sister to Kirkton Formula and Kirkton Envoy. Look up her heifer calf being retained in the herd.

Typical scene at Louada.

The Louada herd is made up of approximately 80 females of breeding age. About half of these are imported, the other half are Louada bred daughters and granddaughters of imported females. We ask you to see the Louada cow herd and judge for yourself. See how a great herd of imported foundation females is continually being improved through the retention of their Louada bred daughters.

Because we feel it vital to reserve a liberal number of heifers of our own breeding, each year we have been following the practice of offering a group of top quality imported cows in this sale, either with calves at foot or well along in calf to our herd sires.

Remitall Galahad was the Grand Champion Bull Over All Breeds, 1958 Edmonton Futurity. Bred by Louis and Carroll Latimer, Olds, Alberta. Sire, Louada Galahad, purchased for $7,200 in the 1955 Louada sale. Out of a great imported cow by Millhills Climax, Perth junior champion and sire of a Perth junior champion.

Louada Galahad; Louada Battleship, sold in the 1957 sale for $6,000, and later first in class at the International; and Louada Beaver, Lot 12; are all full brothers. We consider the Blood Royals one of our strongest families and have purchased Remitall Galahad for light service in the herd.
